I've got only one life
To make my dreams reality
When all my tomorrows are in my face they're haunting me
I'm sorry I ever let a day go by
I'm sorry for ever saying this simple life someday
When my life is over and I read through my own review
The meaning of my life with no regrets
No questions why
No sorrys for all the things I could have made
No sorrys I gave it all I didn't say someday

I've got one life to live this life
I've got on try to get it right
I've got one try to change a life
I've got one life one life
My someday's have come and gone
My someday's before me now
My todays why I'm alive
I've got one life one life

This is that moment
To push through my unopened doors
While my heart is beating
Life can pass me by no more
My someday's it's not a wish or make believe
My someday's it is today its waiting for me
