

Save My Life

Press Play

My heart is breakin'
Feeling forsaken
Pieces of you
Are bringin' me through
It's easy to feel lost
In all this chaos
But every view is pointing to you

You're callin' me
I fall in deep, so deep
Awaken me
Save my life, save my life

I am crying out to you
Calling out for my rescue
I am nothing without you
Save my life, save my life

All of my worries
Dealings and furies
I leave them with you, leave them with you
I've been here for so long
Used to be so strong
Battered and bruised
Reachin' for you

You're standing before me
In all your glory
My Savior, I see
You're all that I need
You stood me dying
Now you have saved me
A new destiny
And now I am free!
