

Three Little Words

Press Play

(What the world needs is three little words, I love you.)

So many people need a change
So hurt by yesterday
Needing someone to say I love you.
Cause I know in sunshine and rain
Through heartache and pain
There's always a new tomorrow

Oh, oh, here you go, three little words
It's all it takes gotta make them heard
Raise your voice and say I love you
Oh oh here you go one simple phrase
Is all it takes to make a change today
Raise your voice and say I love you

Our hearts are one in the same
One voice and one name
Let's end all the separation.
And when the dark clouds ascend
We know it's not the end
There's always a new tomorrow.

Oh, oh, here you go, three little words
It's all it takes gotta make them heard
Raise your voice and say I love you
Oh oh here you go one simple phrase
Is all it takes to make a change today
Raise your voice and say I love you

Love love love
