

World Anthem

Press Play

(KICK IT!)

I'm calling in the dark
Can you hear me?
All you lost ones fighting to break free
Can you see the battle beginning?
Time to buckle up for your training

I can feel it in the air, it's happening.
I can see it in the smoke, it's billowing.
Every tribal shout is a going.
This ain't a drill, it's the real thing!

Raise your voice and let it out
Join the fight and shout it out
Show the world what love's about
Start a revolution, start a revolution
Brace yourself 'cause the change is here
We're making darkness disappear
Throw your fist up in the air
Start a revolution, start a revolution

Talk about our destruction
No putting blame on the present institution
Tearing down this covert operation
Getting in our battle formation

March for freedom
Change our nation
Join the movement now (right now)
March for freedom
Change our nation
Join the movement now (right now)
Start a revolution, start a revolution
