

Two Hearts

Pretty Boy Floyd

Two kids on the ride
Round and round it goes
Two hearts beat together
When it stops nobody knows
You say you're much too young
You didn't know any better
You're trying to be happy and hope it lasts forever
Hope it lasts forever

'Cause holding hands ain't good enough
Never meant to hurt no one
Just to kiss, and try to make a love

Then the sound became, your love can change like weather
You're a million miles away, and you sent in all those letters
I sit alone in bed, and want to feel all your kisses
But since we're still I sin
It's you whom I've been missing
You've been all I'm missing

Cause holding hands ain't good enough
Never meant to hurt no one
Just to kiss and try to make a loooooove!

Cause holding hands ain't good enough
Never meant to hurt no one
Just to kiss and try to make a love

Two hearts beat together
Hope it lasts forever
We forget your name
Or the ring that's on my finger
I'm standing in the rain
Like an almost fading picture...
