The architects of war has spoken once again We must defend democracy
It's time for payback to the once they
Call their friends
To please the weapon industries

And there you stand Ready to die for freedom Man A simple man Dying for shady reasons

You follow orders
Off you go to foreign shores
They call you to protect and serve
Liscence to murder on the right side of the law
The country's set on red alert

Kill
Kill or get killed
Nobody to hold on to
Hell
Everyday hell
Torture and hate surround you

Why die for a lie Die in a war Dying for something not woth dying for.

Why die for a lie

The war is won
But still you fight on foreign fields
While everything around you dies

Cry
Inside you cry
Mentally hurt and shattered
Dead
Emotionally dead
Survival is all that matters

Chorus

And when you're coming home You still hear the screaming You're suffering alone You still feel the pain

Chorus
