

The First Picture Of You

Prezioso

"It's warm in and out the pluse of flowing love spread the calm to meet the others pleasure fills with love 'til ll down

It's warm in and out the call for sacred hours the soft chant o f new-born singing the magic force of your feeling the first picture of you, the first picture of summer seeing th

can't lose this mood gentle with summer at our ears flood the w orld deep in sunlight break into the peaceful wild
