

Born To Believe In You

Pride of Lions

In a world where trust seems to turn to dust
I can't blame you for losing faith
When the whispers start, it can turn your heart
I can show you it's not too late

Distant as it seems, don't forget our dream
That we used to share, don't it mean a thing
Do you ever miss those sweet days of bliss like I do

I was born to believe in you
One look in my eyes, you'll know that it's true
You're the one truth I've found, I won't let you down
I was born to believe in you

I never will forget that first day we met
How you changed me from deep within
From the very start, ah, you shook my heart
Helped to make me the man I am

Now it seems so strange how the feeling's change
Baby, deep inside all the love remains
Don't know what you've heard, but I'm still the one that you knew

I was born to believe in you
One look in my eyes, you'll know that it's true
You're the one truth I've found, I won't let you down
I was born to believe

You are the air that I breathe
You are the reason to be, you're all that I need Possessions, they all fade away
With just the thought of you gone, I can't hold on Baby, you know that it's true, living's not living without you

I was born to believe in you
One look in my eyes, you'll know that it's true
You're the one truth I've found, I won't let you down
I was born to believe

I was born to believe in you
One look in my eyes, you'll know that it's true
You're the one truth I've found, I won't let you down
I was born to believe in you
Born to believe in you
