

Well, there's a rules of our house ages
Come to see our Yellow Pages for a clue, yeah
Final cost was brought to a barrel
True believers everywhere
Stripped down to their underwear and drew
Pictures of the naked roof

Van Gogh, hear the seether
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Connector of the car
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Waiting to receive here
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Behind an imaginary wall
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)

(Watch, can the lights come down?)
(Watch, can the lights come down?)

Heaven touched the walls there
Booked the campers on the coast
Let us freeze you, yeah
Substitutes who run the hallways
Just outside the classrooms
Always covered in the fear that you had salute
To all girls who're strange troops

Van Gogh, hear the seether
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Connector of the car
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Waiting to receive here
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Behind an imaginary wall
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)

Watch, can the lights come down?
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Watch, can the lights come down?
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Watch, can the lights come down?
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Watch, can the lights come down?
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
Watch, can the lights come down?
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
(Breathe the air, breathe the air)
