Already Missing You

Prince Royce

Driving all night just to say goodbye Windows down, hearing the wind Hang up the phone but I'm feeling all night Empty pillows, 2 AM

I cannot pretend that won't be long Every minute that you're gone But trust me, in the end it will be worth it 'Cause baby you're the one

I can't even face the daylight 'Cause I'm already missing you Baby we'll say we'll be alright But I'm already missing you

You got me lo-lo-loving you Lo-lo-lo-loving you You got me lo-lo-loving you Lo-lo-lo-loving you

Loving you Loving you

I'm missing your touch, I'm missing your smile Love to feel your hands on my skin Feeling a rush, it makes me go wild Crazy how you know what I think

I cannot pretend that won't be long Every minute that you're gone But trust me, in the end it will be worth it 'Cause baby you're the one

I can't even face the daylight 'Cause I'm already missing you Baby we'll say we'll be alright But I'm already missing you

You got me lo-lo-loving you Lo-lo-loving you You got me lo-lo-lo-loving you Lo-lo-loving you

Baby I can't close my eyes
Wishing I just have the hands of time
If it's close, that's forever
Forever, we gotta live our lives
That there won't stop me from loving you

I can't even face the daylight 'Cause I'm already missing you Baby we'll say we'll be alright But I'm already missing you

You got me lo-lo-loving you Lo-lo-loving you You got me lo-lo-loving you Lo-lo-lo-loving you

Loving you Loving you

Driving all night just to say goodbye Windows down, hearing the wind I'm mad at myself, I'm struggling now But we've done this again and again
