

There for You

Prince Royce

There was a time when no one would love me
But you took me into your heart
And said I'm here to stay
You never said why but why would you trust me
It's like you could tell the difference
Between who I was and who I am today

And in that moment you showed me
That we could make it last forever
Cause if you love me at my worst
I tell you it only gets better
Whatever the world may say
About the choice you made
You fought that fight and stayed right by my side, so

I'll make sure they know that you're responsible
For making me everything you always knew I was
You said you wanted a lover, a best friend
and ain't girl who you believe in
Your love is the sweetest love I know
So I'll be there for you
I'll be there for you
You deserve the best of everything
And you are the only one
So I'll be there for you
I'll be there for you

Baby, I know, I know you hear stories
About all those crazy games I used to play
They say I'm selling you a dream
But you never judge me
Even when all the cards were stacked against us
You put all your money on the line
And in that moment you showed me

And in that moment you showed me
That we could make it last forever
Cause if you love me at my worst
I tell you it only gets better
Whatever the world may say
About the choice you made
You fought that fight and stayed right by my side, so

I'll make sure they know that you're responsible
For making me everything you always knew I was
You said you wanted a lover, a best friend
and ain't girl who you believe in
Your love is the sweetest love I know
So I'll be there for you

You deserve the best of everything
And you are the only one
I'll be there for you
Anything you want, I'll do it
