

Forever And A Day

Private Line

High school drop out beaten by the city scenes
Got slapped by crap she's seen all on her knees
Frustrated and so mistaken
Took it for real, but the world was fakin'
From the alley she made it through
Broken-hearted
You were always on my mind
Every time I open my eyes
It's like forever and a day
Season changes love to hate
And just too little and much too late
It lasts forever and a day, today!

Mouths are open fed by tears and pain
Love is for sale in the street without the name
Another night out, Janie was jaded
Another try out, dreams were faded
Lust for life can break your heart in two
You were always on my mind
Every time I open my eyes
It's like forever and a day
Season changes love to hate
And just too little and much too late
It lasts forever and a day, today!
And much too late!
