

Enemies

Profane Omen

All the hate I've grown for you
Since it all came down
Hold still and sleep for now
Bite the pillow

All we shared was dirty tricks
And the urge to play
You know, deceiving leads to a bitter end
All we cared was how to hurt
And make things dead
(It's all coming clear now)
You wanted to have it all

Praise the love
Your broken smothered heart charity
You know!
From now on we are enemies!
I tried to search
A place for some sympathy
But you know!
From now on we are enemies! (Enemies!)

Breathe heavily, inhale
The exhausting anger
Fly fuckin' high for me
'Cause I'm still clingin'

Promises, based on your twisted head
You showed no shame when crushing both
My love and hate in pieces
Leashed me up with guilt and secrets
I need you to be stone dead
For me, me

Praise the love
Your broken smothered heart charity
You know!
From now on we are enemies!
I tried to search
A place for some sympathy
But you know!
From now on we are enemies!

Reckless and cold
From now on we are enemies!
Shit paid for gold
From now on we are...

Neglecting, violating
Lying sack of shit you are Backstabbing, emotion killing
Life abusing (Ungod!)

You lied, you lied, you lied to me
You lied, you love to lie, to me
(You crawled, you begged, you cried for me!)

Lies, all, lies, all, weak
