

The Queen Of Time And Space

Project Pitchfork

Once upon a time
A single soul began to shine
In the center of it all

In a landscape was a mountain
On this mountain was a castle
And in this castle was a chamber
And in this chamber plays a girl

There is a landscape with a mountain
On this mountain is a castle
And in this castle is a chamber
And in this chamber plays a girl
She is the center of it all
She is the center of it all

In a chamber plays a girl
She plays with dreams
With you and me
She pictures the center of it all

There is a landscape with a mountain
On this mountain is a castle
And in this castle is a chamber
And in this chamber plays a girl
She is the center of it all

In the middle of a chamber
Plays a girl with time and space
The chamber is in a gateless castle
This castle is placed on a mountain
This mountain rests in a landscape

The landscape is woven into a rug
And on this rug plays a girl
She is the queen of time and space
Of everything that was and will be
And all the things we've ever done
Were in her play for ever after

We're in her game ever after
We're in her game ever after
