

Why am I?
You are my dream
It was my wish

Who are you?
A wish made it possible
You know it

I wish you would be here
You feel the answer
I am everywhere, am I not?

I've been searching you everywhere
You say it loud
I have been everywhere

And you have been all this
Much more than that
You see, I am

Why love?
It's you
Because there's nothing else

Why time?
I want to recognize
The word needs sound

I see you
Just what do you see?
I am love

Why me?
Why do you doubt?
Because it's you

I don't recognize
I don't understand
I will be

Are we one?
We are two.
I am three!
