

Sunday Morning

Promoe

let me tell you a little story what i saw the other morning... a junky, don't rest on a sunday morning a junky gotta get that money regardless what day of the week it is money burn so fast

in this ice cold world, in this ice cold world so we try to escape and push it deeper in the vein so we try to escape the pain push babylon deeper in the vein because it don't get more babylon than heroin it don't get more evil than crack cocain it don't get more babylon than heroin but look who's bubblin the crack cocain cus those with the addiction don't have no jurisdiction in this evilous world those who roam nights don't have no rights in this hideous world and it's such a contradiction that those with the addiction are just trying to escape but wind up trapping themselves in a capsule of hell and a system of hate

that's why a junky, don't rest on a sunday morning a junky gotta get cash money regardless
what day of the week it is

now while you sleeping through the weekend got no problems laughing and eating after a friday night and a saturday night of partying and drinking maybe you popped a pill or sniffed a line of coke or something on a whole it's alright, you got in check you ain't no fuckin junkie you don't mind more cops in the streets they keep em clean and our right wing government you're lovin it - tax reduction soon capital punishment yo, secretely wishin they'd would go all out with that operation eradication to kill off all real junkies down at the station stuck in the same system they were trying to get out of in the first place addicted to their drugs dependant in the worst case i wanna know where's the solidarity? with your fellow man - cus all they wanna be is free, but...

a junky, can't sleep on a sunday morning
a junky gotta get cash money regardless

in this ice cold world, in this ice cold world
