

i'm a tripper man in a spaced out jam flying in the circus of a freakshow band my ears are wings they take me to my dreams i close my eyes and i'm alone here singing in this state of mind, i'm more than myself i could reach up into the sky, colour in the sun in the eyes of my imagination i can roll a bigger stone i've cut the ties that build the rule of lies and then i tripped away into the void lay down the gun that defends me cover me with a rose instead my eyes see the deadland that surrounds me but i can see the garden in my head all is well

no wall will stand in my way if they're too tall, i'll go beneath them cut me down, you'll just go through me
cut me down, you'll just go through me i am forever i am forever i and me you've never really seen even when i leave this face behind there's got to be another place to find where i really belong cause here i don't belong here i do not belong so i write this song of mine to soothe my ears and ease my mind and so another written page will turn into the everflow will no one ever really know about me should they even care a strange little man racing all his bubbles to the surface of the universe to see if he could swin out of his own mind and as he looked behind, he realized what he had escaped he thought that alone he would float out in space for awhile goddamn mother gonna try to take me down take a place in line just lead your pigs into the slaughter thank you perry for the idea man oh, by the way i want to meet you one day thank you for the way you sang to me
