

(you Will) Know My Name

Puffball

There's nothing wrong with shooting as long as the right people get shot
That was the best advice my granddad had so I guess he didn't have alot.
He told me to remember it, cuz he swore he was right.
So I got a gun, and I used it alot, I even slept with it at night.

That's why I am the way I am,
My folks have taught me about this game.
You might hate it, I don't give a damn.
One thing is for sure, you will know my name.

There's nothing wrong with drinking as long as it's you who get drunk.
That was my dad's best selling slogan running shine from his trunk.
People gathered around him, I helped him out and got paid..
The people got addicted, we didn't care and our fortune was made.

That's why I am the way I am ...
