Mr. Maloke:

Bully bully bully, wella wella wella
a new accapella comin' at you fella ziggy ziggy ziggy, shaka laka laka
Mr. Maloke with a new father fkin' rocker Prosetti it's all thanks to you that these figgas got the brand new dance to do they just sick and tired of the same old same old they wanna break the mold and boldly go where no flow's gone before--oh up and down all around and beyond below on top of the bottom in the middle of the near end do the swamp pitch pucker bouge your rear end it's a spasmotical type of action cause body mashin' is always in fashion so put your hands together and make that sound it's a clap and a slap and jump off the ground

Chorus

Snuggles:

Up from the analog underground, humping big booty with my thunder-pound!
Humping big booty from my th-underground layer,
