

Tell me something that I don't know
Torn up pictures of broken walls
Show me life after you
Is it worth trying to

Are we dead as we're going on
Do we know where we're coming from
Am I out here alone?
Loss of breath, on my own

Pulling me back once more
I know you know that I'm following every move you make
But you let me down
I can be someone else for you
I guess I know it is true
Do you?

I'm chasing every particle of you
I don't wanna fight no more
But I can't believe it
I'm following your shadow's out the door
Calling out your name, but I know
I'm easily deceived and alone

Show me faces of those I know
Lead me into the great unknown
You left me out here alone
Losing life on my own

Loss of breath
As I'm torn in two
Still I'm hunting The loss of you
Am I out here alone
Loss of breath on my own

Pulling me back once more
I know you know that I'm following every move you make
But you let me down
I can be someone else for you
I guess I know it is true
Do you?

I am the fallen
Hear me calling on
But I don't believe it no more
I am the fallen
Hear me calling on...

I don't wanna fight no more
I'll follow every particle of you!
