

I never lied
to myself, tonight
Rose-tinted eyes
Colour my sorrows
A shade of wine

Bye bye black balloon
I'll see you real soon
Wave bye bye (bye bye)

Oh, why you sad?
What have they done?
Forget those mindless baboons
They're off playing god

Copcats in cheap suits
All playing it safe
While cannibals with bad news
Consume the parade
Is it wonderful?

(I love you)

Far, far from shore
The land of nightmares
Gone forevermore
And I love you more
Than I can control

I don't even try
Why would I?

Oh, why the long face
You've got it all wrong
Forget the rat in the race
We'll choke chain them all
Fates favor the one who help themselves
The rest feel the sting of the lash as they run
