

Dr. Blind

Queensberry

Another one too cold to touch
Can't stop smiling, cry so much
The square faced man of primetime
Reminds of padded rooms

The lack of light, hollow sea
Poison beaches, limousines
Thootless dentists, coops that kill
Can't stop shopping, I can't...

I can't stop the lonesome lows
Don't just go away overnight
Dr. Blind, just describe the blue one
"Here's to you, Mrs. Robinson"
If the dizzying highs
Don't subside overnight
Dr. Blind, just describe the red one
Hey hey hey
Hey hey hey

Whenever she gets that shrinkwrapped pill
Thrill in her hand again
The first to let us know
She is not the perfect woman
And neither are you,
Can't stop shopping, I can't...

I can't stop the lonesome lows
Don't just go away overnight
Dr. Blind, just describe the blue one
"Here's to you, Mrs. Robinson"
If the dizzying highs
Don't subside overnight
Dr. Blind, just describe the red one
Hey hey hey
Hey hey hey
