Hello Turn Your Radio On

Queensberry

Woke up this morning and the streets were full of cars all bright and shiny like they'd just arrived from mars and as i stumbled through last nights drunken debris the paperboy screamed out the headlines in the street

another war and now the pound is looking weak and tell me have you read about the latest freak? we're bingo numbers and our names are obsolete why do i feel bitter when i should be feeling sweet hello, hello turn your radio on is there anybody out there ? help me sing my song la la la life is a strange thing just when you think you learned how to use it it's gone woke up this morning and my head was in a daze a brave new world has dawned upon the human race where words are meaning less and everything's surreal i'm gonna have to reach my friends to find out how i feel and if i taste the honey is it really sweet and do i eat it with my hands or with my feet ? does anybody really listen when i speak or will i have to say it all again next week hello, hello turn your radio on is there anybody out there ? help me sing my song hello, hello turn your radio on is there anybody out there ? tell me what went wrong? la la la life is a strange thing just when you think you learned how to use it it's gone
