

On My Own

Queensberry

I look up to the sky for answers
I find riddles in the clouds
I look around at all of the people
Find them hard to figured out

Somtimes I like to be a stranger
Sometimes I like to be alone

On my own
the world seems bigger
And love feels kinder
Cause I dont't have to fit in
On my own
My eyes see clearer
When I loke in life's mirror,I'm home
I'm home

I tried to capture time in a bottle
Velvet over in the now
Moments have a way of changing
The second time around

Sometime I want to be my only friend
Sometimes it feels like I am

On my own
the world seems bigger
And love feels kinder
Cause I don't have to fit in
On my own
My eyes see clearer
When I loke in life's mirror,I'm home
I'm home

Everyday there's an other way
Of finding out the mistakes I made
The same ones that I made today
With every day comes an other change
To get it right,make a change
And right now I wanna stay

On my own
the world seems bigger
And love feels kinder
Cause I dont't have to fit in
On my own
My eyes see clearer
When I loke in life's mirror,I'm home
I'm home

My eyes see clearer
When I'm look in life's mirror,I'm home
I'm home
