

FORGET THE LIES

Quietdrive

Do you think about the time when you were young?
Fists wrapped around the world but then it spun
Out of control because
You let the right one go
Everything is not just how it seems
You've given up on hope and all your dreams
Have been distorted by
The glass of gin you poured and I

Catch you coming clean with all the honesty you sing
It makes you cry 'cause you haven't dreamed in so long, so long

Forget the lines and the lies that you're never enough
'Cause you're alive and it's time to get over yourself
We can forget the past to get back on track
That's where we should be
Just memorize in your heart that you're beautiful

Have you ever felt broken and defeated?
Marked with scars from the life that you conceded
When you fell down, you gave up, you lost touch
And then you crawled out of the rock you came from
But the people that are smiling at the end of the road
And the folks who didn't listen to a thing they were told
They just stood up, they walked out, they fought back
Because they had faith that one day they'll have it all again

Forget the lines and the lies that you're never enough
'Cause you're alive and it's time to get over yourself
We can forget the past to get back on track
That's where we should be
Just memorize in your heart that you're beautiful

And they say that we're never gonna be the same
And they say that we're never gonna be the same

Forget the lies
Forget the lies
Forget the lies
That everybody told you

Forget the lies
Forget the lies
Forget the lies
That everybody told you

Forget the lines and the lies that you're never enough
'Cause you're alive and it's time to get over yourself
We can forget the past to get back on track
That's where we should be
Just memorize in your heart that you're beautiful
