TATTOO

Quietdrive

Hear me, know me, I'll be ugly Walking backwards, crawling after My legs are numb, my tongue is swelled up I hurt, it cuts, I hate your guts

Hey Girl you're like a tattoo My arms ache with permanent ink And I need you inside my bed Like I need a bullet to the head Hey Girl you're like a tattoo A perfect shade of blue A perfect shade of you A permanent tattoo

Every day since you've been scared But I wouldn't have it any other way So unprepared that I didn't get the chance to say My heart, you're home, my life, you're gone My room, your lace, my tongue, your face

Hey Girl you're like a tattoo My arms ache with permanent ink And I need you inside my bed Like I need a bullet to the head Girl you're like a tattoo A perfect shade of blue A perfect shade of you A permanent tattoo

Trace your finger up my arm Write your name next to the scars All alone into the dark Cause I always fall for you

I fall I fall

Hey girl you're like a tattoo You hurt just like a tattoo I need you inside my bed Like I need a bullet to the head

Hey Girl you're like a tattoo My arms ache with permanent ink And I need you inside my bed Like I need a bullet to the head Hey Girl you're like a tattoo A perfect shade of blue A permanent tattoo A perfect shade of you
