

Good Thing Go

Quinn XCII

I want you to want me like you want a beer when it's hot in the middle of June

And I wanna be like your morning coffee, always the first thing you do

Baby I know what you're thinking before the words even come out of your mouth

When I look at you I forget what the hell we were talking about

And I don't deserve you, I'll never hurt you

If I ever lost you I'd die

If I couldn't hold you I would be so blue

And I'm not supposed to cry

Maybe I'm saying it too early, maybe I'm moving fast

I may not be the first to love you but I wanna be the last

When you know then you know

And I can't let a good thing go

I know I'm rough around the edges, not as smooth as the rest

But I can promise you when I'm with you I'll love you the best

When you know then you know

And we can't let a good thing go

The way that you throw on your makeup and stare at the mirror's a beautiful thing

The way that you take up my side of the bed even though we have a king

All of your family thinks you're too good for me and I can't defend

I'm just so happy that you would agree to be more than a friend

And I don't deserve you, I'll never hurt you

If I ever lost you I'd die

If I couldn't hold you I would be so blue

And I'm not supposed to cry

Maybe I'm saying it too early, maybe I'm moving fast

I may not be the first to love you but I wanna be the last

When you know then you know

And I can't let a good thing go

I know I'm rough around the edges, not as smooth as the rest

But I can promise you when I'm with you I'll love you the best

When you know then you know

And we can't let a good thing go

We can't let a good thing go

So let's just let this good thing grow

I can't let a good thing go, oh

We can't let a good thing go

So let's just let keep this good thing growing

And I can't let a good thing go, oh, oh

And I can't let a good thing go

Maybe I'm saying it too early, maybe I'm moving fast

I may not be the first to love you but I wanna be the last

When you know then you know

And I can't let a good thing go

(So let's just keep this good thing growing)

I know I'm rough around the edges, not as smooth as the rest

But I can promise you when I'm with you I'll love you the best

When you know then you know

And we can't let a good thing go
