

When I Die

Quinn XCII

Baby, I'm a little faded
But I need to tell you lately
I wouldn't change a thing, oh no, no
My favorite times are being lazy
Only Tempur-Pedic laying
We're quiet, listening, yeah

'Cause we're both here, keeping our breath under control
It's calm, no fear, I don't wanna ever let go

When I die, it's this I'll remember
The wind moving the curtains in your room
This moment's too good, I surrender
'Cause there's no space in time
That compares to how I feel like right now

When I'm dead, I want you stuck in my head
I want you haunting my thoughts while my message is read
I'd love for you to hear me
Know that there's a meaning I could never verbalize
I'm too busy feeding off the simple way you make me feel soft
It's not easy loving life when I'm pissed off
That's why you came in and saved me, saved me
Life is only just a daydream

When I die, it's this I'll remember
The wind moving the curtains in your room
This moment's too good, I surrender
'Cause there's no space in time
That compares to how I feel like right now

When I die
'Cause we're both here, keeping our breath under control
It's calm, no fear, I don't wanna ever let go

When I die, it's this I'll remember
The wind moving the curtains in your room (In your room, oh)
This moment's too good, I surrender (I surrender)
'Cause there's no space in time
That compares to how I feel like right now

When I die
In your room, oh
I surrender
