The Wrong Child

I've watched the children come and go A late long march into spring I sit and watch those children Jump in the tall grass Leap the sprinkler Walk in the ground Bicycle clothespin spokes The sound, the smell of swingset hands

I will try to sing a happy song I'll try and make a happy game to play

Come play with me I whispered to my new found friend Tell me what it's like to go outside I've never been Tell me what it's like to just go outside I've never been And I never will

And I'm not supposed to be like this I'm not supposed to be like this But it's okay

Hey those kids are looking at me I told my friend myself Those kids are looking at me They're laughing and they're running over here They're laughing and they're running over here

What do I do? What can I do? What should I do? What do I say? What can I say?

I said I'm not supposed to be like this Let's try to find a happy game to play Let's try to find a happy game to play

I'm not supposed to be like this But it's okay, okay
