

BRUTIFUL

Ra

I can't be, what you want
No one understands the way you make me talk
And I can't feel without your hands
My immunity to light hides the weight of your demands

I've given up wondering
Devices crumbling
Cut skin and a dried out vein
My hope is lost in yesterday

All this time chasing an endless lie
All this rain falls from an empty sky
Dreams go broke, torn up and ripped away
And I am left, left to find the rest of me

It's not a joke, to have this fear
And every question that you ask is insincere
Where is the love that shook my soul?
My mobility reduced and shoved down into a hole

Corrosion everywhere
Much more than I can bear
I don't care what's wrong or right
The innocence burns tonight

All this time chasing an endless lie
All this rain falls from an empty sky
Dreams go broke, torn up and ripped away

All this time chasing an endless lie
All this rain falls from an empty sky
Dreams go broke, torn up and ripped away
