

THE VOICE INSIDE MY HEAD

Ra

I found a reason to let you in
You found a reason to be my sin
Perfect time, perfect place
For the light of your disgrace

I didn't have a warning before the fall
You drove me to shipwreck; a siren's call
So where do I go?
Where do I run
To escape what you've become?

In my head while I sleep
You're the demon that I see
Drag me down into the deep
Let the darkness cover me
With your hands on my eyes
Full control over my mind
Should have turned away
Ignoring what you said
You're the voice inside my head

Stuck in the twilight, you grab my soul
Pull me in deeper; and endless hole
A venomous kiss, a cyanide tongue
I can't escape what you've become

In my head while I sleep
You're the demon that I see
Drag me down into the deep
Let the darkness cover me
With your hands on my eyes
Full control over my mind
Should have turned away
Ignoring what you said
You're the voice inside my head

And all I see is red
I see red
Alive for the moment
The fear burns down
Split into pieces
With no one around
Harmonious chaos, I lose my way
And nothing can save us
I can't disobey
The devil seduction
Can't wait to give in
A pit of corruption
The ending begins

In my head while I sleep
You're the demon that I see
Drag me down into the deep
With your hands on my eyes
Should have turned away

Ignoring what you said

In my head while I sleep
You're the demon that I see
Drag me down into the deep
With your hands on my eyes
Should have turned away
Ignoring what you said
