

TRAGIC EMPIRE

Ra

I won't be there
I won't be there
I won't be there
I won't be there

I won't be there
I won't be there
I won't be there
I won't be there

In the light of the sun
I can give you my heart again
Feeding your fire in the sand
Every second erases my memory

Don't tell me what I'm supposed to be
Everything inside of me
Curses irredeemably
And now
I can't stand any part of it
Cutting down the heart of it
Stuck inside a tragic empire

Why so lonely?
Why so lonely?
Why so lonely?
Why so lonely?

In the light of the sun
I can give you my heart again
Feeding your fire in the sand
Every second erases my memory

Time runs over
Time runs over
Time runs over
Time runs over

In the light of the sun
I can give you my heart again
Feeding your fire in the sand
Every second erases my memory

Don't tell me what I'm supposed to be
Everything inside of me
Curses irredeemably
And now
I can't stand any part of it
Cutting down the heart of it
Stuck inside a tragic empire

Don't tell me what I'm supposed to be
Everything inside of me
Curses irredeemably
And now
Cutting down the heart of it

Stuck inside a tragic empire
