```
I won't be there
In the light of the sun
I can give you my heart again
Feeding your fire in the sand
Every second erases my memory
Don't tell me what I'm supposed to be
Everything inside of me
Curses irredeemably
And now
I can't stand any part of it
Cutting down the heart of it
Stuck inside a tragic empire
Why so lonely?
Why so lonely?
Why so lonely?
Why so lonely?
In the light of the sun
I can give you my heart again
Feeding your fire in the sand
Every second erases my memory
Time runs over
Time runs over
Time runs over
Time runs over
In the light of the sun
I can give you my heart again
Feeding your fire in the sand
Every second erases my memory
Don't tell me what I'm supposed to be
Everything inside of me
Curses irredeemably
And now
I can't stand any part of it
Cutting down the heart of it
Stuck inside a tragic empire
Don't tell me what I'm supposed to be
Everything inside of me
Curses irredeemably
I can't stand any part of it
Cutting down the heart of it
```
