

Rock And Roll Slow Dance

Radney Foster

Stars fell down on a small town Saturday
Late one spring
The moon said I'm just a lonely satellite
Dancin' on a string
I was in the back of a ball gown
I'd never done it before
You laughed and kissed me wild and carefree
And let it fall to the floor

And then the moon and the stars
Did a rock and roll slow dance
Like two kids at the prom
Who found first love and lost their innocence
Between midnight and dawn
What a lovely way to start
Even though it broke two hearts
On a rock and roll slow dance

So bodies dance and spin got it right
As spring rolls round we dance again
If only in my mind

I go back to the very first time

When the moon and the stars
Did a rock and roll slow dance
Like two kids at the prom
And found first love and lost their innocence
Between midnight and dawn
We both let our hearts get tangled
That's the way it ought to be
New directions That I'll remember endlessly

And then the moon and the stars
Did a rock and roll slow dance
Like two kids at the prom
Who found first love and lost their innocence
Between midnight and dawn
What a lovely way to start
Even though it broke two hearts
On a rock and roll slow dance

On a rock and roll slow dance
Rock and roll slow dance
