

Walkin' Talkin' Woman

Radney Foster

She's a walkin', talkin'
Real live good lovin' woman
She'll heal the hurt you left in me

She's a livin', breathin'
Heart-stoppin', man pleasin' woman
To help me lose your memory.

You say that I'll come running back to you someday
Believe me I don't need the aggravation babe.
Heartaches and pain have never really been my style.
So if your waiting you'll be waiting quite a while

She's a walkin', talkin'
Real live good lovin' woman
She'll heal the hurt you left in me

She's a livin', breathin'
Heart-stoppin', man pleasin' woman
To help me lose your memory

There was a time I thought our love would never die.
Back before my teardrops fell around your lies
I realize now that I've found someone true
That love was never really meant for me and you

She's a walkin', talkin'
Real live good lovin' woman
She'll heal the hurt you left in me

She's a livin', breathin'
Heart-stoppin', man pleasin' woman
To help me lose your memory
Yeah, she's a woman to help me lose your memory
