

Back To Front

Rae Morris

I will force doubt on myself,
Of the corners of life in your health.
Pictures of where I came from,
Are enough to inspire what I am.
Let me set fire to this wealth,
And satisfy what I've come here to find.
Distance is all in your power,
And I want to demand what I get.

Back to front,
Settled down,
Keep my feet back on to solid ground.
This world, it is hard to tell,
And love it will bind you down,
Keep up with my mind as well.

Watch as I sink as myself,
An opposite force of what's best for us.
Friends feeling weak under questions,
And falling in love is our quest.

Back to front,
Settled down,
Keep my feet back on to solid ground.
This world, it is hard to tell,
And love, it will bind you down,
Keep up with my mind as well.

And I was looking out,
Looking out for answers.
And I keep on waiting out for hope.
And hope is not a choice.
And nor is an answer.
And I keep on waiting out for you.

Back to front, settled down.
Keep my feet back on to solid ground,
Back to front, settled down.
Keep my feet back on to solid ground.
This world it is hard to tell,
And love it will bind you down.
Keep up with my mind as well.
