

Wait A While

Rae Morris

So, here's my response to all your givings,
Found something I need to keep.
Bound, bound to be hard and dark in places,
Found something I need to keep.

Wait a while, wait a while, but sign on, won't you,
Come around, come around and fight for, this is,
Different, different, I'm hoping...

Caught under the back it left me helpless,
Start to question my only friends.
I walk in the presence of a goddess,
Walk further and you will mend.

Wait a while, wait a while, but sign on, won't you,
Come around, come around and fight for, this is,
Different, different, I'm hoping...

And I try to test my thoughts,
It's circular of me.
Forget everything I'm taught,
There's possibility.

I'm unaware, all overwhelmed, biding my fear and flight.
Climbing the ropes, of which I'm too scared to cope,
She shines an emerald light.

Wait a while, wait a while, but sign on, won't you,
Come around, come around and fight for.
Wait a while, wait a while, but sign on,
Won't you come around and fight for...
