

Letting You Go

Raisa

Don't shut me out, I'm not your enemy
We were lovers you and me
I'm drowning, in a pool of fear
We were soulmates not so long ago

Take my hands even though we're torn apart
Still in this together
Call me crazy but I still believe
We were meant to be
You and I

I'm trying hard to let you go, to let you go
I'm trying my best to let you go, to let you go
Feels impossible but I'm letting you go back to

Take my hands even though we were torn apart
Still in this together
Call me crazy but I still believe
We were meant to be
You and I

I'm trying hard to let you go, to let you go
I'm trying my best to let you go, to let you go
Feels impossible but I'm letting you go back to

And I'm trying my best to, to let you go,
Letting you go
And I'm trying my best to...
To let you go
Let you go tonight
Oh, baby, I'm letting you go
To let you go
