

Still Inside You

Raised By Swans

I'm still inside you,
Your supernova intravenous,
Sliding serpentine through miles,
of empty hallways
I am always needing something

I'm still inside you,
Your glowing ocean phosphorescent,
Hold me closer as the lights,
Unfold below us
Did you notice I was breathing underwater

Dripping down,
Dripping down my fingers

I'm still inside you,
Your supernova intravenous,
Sliding serpentine through miles,
of empty hallways
I am always needing something

Dripping down,
Dripping down my fingers
Slipping through my,
Slipping through my fingers

I can't say,
Can't say if I'd only had my way like a moth inside a flame all my choices had been made
