This is a brand new anthem coming your way Burning up in the studio to make this play (You know why we do it)

Hey, put your fist to the sky if you love it, this starts today We are coming with the sound of the kick drum leading the way For your display

Out of the dark with a brand new flow Eight lines of lyrics, but harder than a hammer throw

Hey, put your fist to the sky if you love it, this starts today

We are coming with the sound of the kick drum leading the way (You know this breakdown is coming way too late)

Let me see you levitate Let me see you elevate

Hey, put your fist to the sky if you love it
Hey, put your fist to the sky if you love it, this starts today
Hey, put your fist to the sky if you love it
Hey, put your fist to the sky if you love it
