

Venomous

Raised Fist

Top of the morning to you all
Today we feel steady like a stone wall standing tall
Why are they wishing for us to fall?
As long as I can recall, discreet like a cannonball
If you are big, they want you small
Constant negative waterfall, fuck them all
Sick of them judging me, sick of how they swing at me
Envy, jealousy, I'm not their fucking enemy

You and me, we are last in line
They are counting imaginary enemies
One at the time (one at the time, yes)
You and me, my friend, we are last in line
We are getting all the thumbs down
From the serpentine

We know you are...
Venomous, all of us
A touch of us
Making you jealous of us
Venomous
We know you are...
Venomous, all of us
A touch of us
Making you jealous of us
Venomous
Venomous

Smartphone addict
You looking for the perfect conflict that can render clicks
It looks like a fucking circus
Running round in circles, throwing shit on random cliques
Let me place this last brick
While you looking for shelter in a house of twig
It's just comic, the way you are cynic
And just because I'm Slavic, puši kurac
This is Armageddon

You and me, we are last in line
They are counting imaginary enemies
One at the time (one at the time, yes)
You and me, my friend, we are last in line
We are getting all the thumbs down
From the serpentine (serpentine)

Venomous, all of us
A touch of us
Making you jealous of us
Venomous, all of us
We know you are...
Venomous, all of us
A touch of us

Making you jealous of us
Venomous, all of us
Venomous, all of us
A touch of us
Making you jealous of us
Venomous, all of us
Venomous
Venomous
Venomous
Venomous, all of us
We know you are...
Venomous
