

The Darkest Day

Ramona Falls

On the darkest day
I will stay
On the darkest day of the year

What you said burns like coal
Wait till the fire dies
When all that's left is ashes
Throw it in my eyelashes

On the darkest day
I will stay
On the darkest day of the year
All is fear
On the darkest day of the year
All is clear

No matter what you say you want
I know I'll never be enough
Why don't I seek out someone
Who loves my empty pockets
