

Living For Tomorrow

Random Eyes

Sunset is spreading
Emotions gain the heartground
It's something more than meets the eye
In this moment, all the season next to winter
Spirit of gloom, is coming down

I stay awake
I pray and wait
a new dawn to come soon

I'm living for tomorrow and I seize the day today
Cuz I am living for tomorrow
I don't remember yesterday

The shimmer of lights so far behind the distance will fade away under the silence of the night Vanishing shadows are fusing into darkness and only trust will lead the way

I don't remember yesterday
All my hope is in your presence
I don't remember yesterday
