

Any Man Can Be A Fool

Rare Earth

When I was a little boy, mama said to me
Any man can be a fool, a man is hard to be
Any man can be a fool, a man is hard to be
I went through life, my ways were fast
And many times I failed
I found my thoughts had washed away
The truth in what she said
Any man can be a fool, a man is hard to be
Any man can be a fool, and what will be, will be

Any man can be a fool, a man's so hard to be
Any man can be a fool, and what will be, will be

Time did pass, so did she
I've learned from life, you see
I hear her voice, it's oh, so strong
A man is hard to be
Any man can be a fool, a man is hard to be
