

Groove it up, it's friday night.
Time to have some fun, alright.
To know what's up.
I gotta reach n' pick up the phone.
Yeah the answer's always mick
my favourite band's having gig.
What could be better idea, than to go to the club.
Listen to me boy you have to be 18 to get inside!
n' there will be no talk about exepitions this time.
Damn, That I wanna see this band. I'll be good,
I understand, this is a moment of my life,
that I can't let go.
I'm steeling in, it allways works.
Yeah I know how to bluff those jerks.
I can't hide my wide smile,
when I think of his words.
