

My Bloody Valentine

Ratcat

I said I love you, and I do.
These gifts I give, I give to you.
It's for today, and every day.
My bloody valentine.

I don't know, what will happen next.
I don't know, what will happen now.
Lovers' lost blood is running out my vein.
The holes get bigger, the love gets stronger,
for my bloody valentine.

I saw six bullets enter your body.
I saw ten holes in the wall.
This death I die, I die for you only.
My bloody valentine.

I don't know, what will happen now.
I don't know, what will happen next.
Everybody seems to know my name.
I have died love's bloody death.
Did I die in vain.

I will bleed for you.
Won't you bleed for me.
I will bleed for you.
We can have the world.
