

Do Your Own Thing

Raven-Symoné

You don't have to be like anybody else (NO)
So what's the problem why can't you be like yourself?
You're individual so you might as well let it show
Oh, oh, oh
Because your beautiful its just the way that you are
Not eveyrbody has to bling bling superstar
Holla back if your feeling what I'm feeling now
Oh, oh, oh

You gotta do your own thing
Don't be just the same
Get the party jumping
The way you like
You gotta do your own thing
And dance your own way
Go a little crazy
Cuz you got the right

Go home and change your clothes 25 times a day
Tell the haters not to come around they bother me
Know that its your world so go ahead and live it up
Oh, oh, oh
Some call me crazy but I guess they'll never understand
I change my hair my clothes my style because I know I can
Now get out on the dance floor and dance

You gotta do your own thing
Don't be just the same
Get the party jumping
The way you like
You gotta do your own thing
And dance your own way
You got something
That makes you rise
Unto to the top of the world
You gotta know what you like
All my fellas and my girls
Show who you are tonight
You gotta do your own thing
You gotta rock your own style
You gotta live for yourself
Every once in a while

Do your own thing
And live your own way
The world is all yours
Go out and get some more
Do your own thing
And live your own way
The world is waiting
Go out and get whats yours
