

Can't Run and Hide

Raven

You want satisfaction

You want to make a deal

Waste your life

Living in a world that`s totally unreal

You - you can run but can`t hide

You - you can`t run and hide

Run and hide

Now you`re on the street

Taking it day by day

Using every angle

But no-one believes a word you say

You - you can run but can`t hide

You - you can`t run and hide

Run and hide

Catch yourself falling

Deep in the crack

Hunger is calling

Twisting the knife

In your back
