

Long Day's Journey

Raven

In the evening when its over and the smoke is coming down when you wake up will you realise that your luck ain't turning round at the start line under the gun but it does not feel the same you hit bottom for the last time and there's no-one else to blame

You never listen - that's why you never learn you saw the straight line but still you made the turn one day soon you're gonna realize

It's a long day's journey back to the beginning - back to the start
long day's journey
back to the beginning - once again

See you building all your bridges just to see them burn taking twisted pleasure showing no concern diving headlong into darkness with no safety net below will you wake up will you come back when there's no where left to go

You never listen - that's why you never see you saw the straight line & turned around to me is this the day you're gonna realize

Back to the start once again
