

To Be Broken

Raven

Take the book in your right hand
Won't you swear on your life
The words you utter are vicious
Yeah they cut like a knife

False honour false glory
False witness twisted story
Blinded with both eyes open
You think the rules are yours
To be broken - to be broken

Innocent until proven
Yes you're guilty as sin
Record as long as your arm
They don't know where to begin

False honour false glory
False witness twisted story
Blinded with both eyes open
You think the rules are yours
To be broken - to be broken
